Summary of the event:	The Parents Meet began with an inaugural session attended by faculty, parents, and students. The Head of Department, Prof. A.N. Mudiraj, addressed the gathering and highlighted the importance of internships in shaping students' professional careers while ensuring continuity of academics. Faculty members explained the internship joining process, discussed allotment of preferred locations, and presented the plan for conducting final year classes online during the internship period. Parents actively participated in the interaction, sharing their concerns and suggestions regarding safety, workload balance, and academic support. The session concluded with a vote of thanks, acknowledging the valuable role of parents in supporting students. Overall, the meeting successfully created a platform for open communication and collaborative planning between parents, students, and faculty.
